

THE MOBILE THOMAS AVELING MUSEUM

REACHING OUT
EDUCATION PROGRAMME

FOR SCHOOLS
AND COMMUNITY GROUPS

The Mobile Thomas Aveling Museum is presented by the Thomas Aveling Society and has been sponsored by The Rochester Bridge Trust, the Blakemore Foundation and Village Voices Publishing. It is available to visit schools in postcode areas ME3, ME2 and ME1 for set periods (for free) and community groups in the same area (for a modest transportation fee).

To find out more about booking the Mobile Thomas Aveling Museum phone 01634 255694 or email:
thomasavelingsociety@outlook.com

The Mobile Thomas Aveling Museum includes (1) details of a unique handwritten sailing log-book (from sailing yacht Sally) written by Thomas Aveling - covering the period 1880 to 1881, (2) an original watercolour from 1890 of Boley Hill House in Rochester (the last home of Thomas Aveling), (3) a working scale-model of an original Thomas Aveling (pre-Porter) traction engine (1858), (4) original photographs (from local residents) and memorabilia of the RRA 1982 Thomas Aveling Centenary Road Run (between Rochester and Hoo) and other items relating to the life of Thomas Aveling.